Yan Kee Way Lodge

Nestled in 12 acres of forest on the southern shores of Lago Llanquihue (pronounced Yan Kee Way) in the spectacular lake district of Chilean Patagonia, this world-class resort offers luxurious accommodation, fine dining, a wide variety of trophy trout waters, and quality outdoor activities for non-anglers. The impressive focal point of the area is the 8,730-foot tall Volcano Osorno, at the waters' edge, forming the northeastern shoreline of the bay.

When you return to the lodge after a day of roughing it, you will be met with a level of comfort and service as spectacular as the natural surrounding. Lodge decor features textured walls and hardwood floors, with leather and handcrafted furniture. Beds come outfitted with goose down comforters, and the full bath has large fluffy towels and bathrobes. Enjoy the hot tub terrace—all sides of the terrace are enclosed in glass, sheltered from breezes, with views of the volcano and lake.

The food and wine alone make Yan Kee Way Lodge a remarkable place to visit: Latitude 42 restaurant has achieved a reputation of its own, with over 30 wineries represented by 200 distinct wines and superb cuisine and service.

Yan Kee Way Lodge is included in our Private Travel Journey Chilean Odyssey or may be included in a customized Cox & Kings Private Travel Journey to Chile. Contact Rachel Robar at 1-800-999-1758 for booking or more information

World Heritage Sites — Vietnam

This year, UNESCO celebrates 30 years in Vietnam with these World Heritage sites:

Halong Bay: 1,600 limestone islands and islets of outstanding beauty and great biological value.

Ancient Town of Hoi An: A very well preserved sample of what Asian trading ports used to look like back in the 15th century.

Hue: Complex of monuments in the former capital of the country from 1802 to 1945.

My Son Sanctuary: Impressive tower temples located in a green lush valley, former capital of the Champa Kingdom from the 4th to 13th centuries.

Phong Nha-Ke National Park: Oldest major karst area in Asia containing spectacular formations including 65 kilometers of caves and underground rivers.

Our Signature Travel Journey Classic Vietnam travels to the first three of these UNESCO sites, or you may customize your journey to include all of the sites and more. Please contact Dianna Upton at 1-800-999-1758.

Signature Escorted Tours to India—All-Inclusive Pricing for 2008

We've just made group travel to India easier and with less effort than ever! Three of our Signature Escorted Travel Journeys to India now include all of your costs, including full board and gratuities (for all local guides, drivers, porters and meal services) throughout your journey. The tours are based on a minimum of 8 passengers, maximum of 18 (if the group size is 6 to 7 passengers, a small group supplement charge will apply).

A highlight of both Splendors of the North and Imperial India tours is the Taj Mahal, one of the “new” seven wonders of the world. You'll also stay at the regal Rambagh Palace in Jaipur. Our Journey to South India features a stay at the new Radisson Plaza Resort & Spa Kumarakum—a spectacular 5-star, exotic lake property in the Indian state of Kerala.

To book your 2008 trip to India, contact Nicole Beattie at 1-800-999-1758 for more information. These trips may also be arranged as a private journey.

The Oberoi Udaivilas, India, Wins Top Travel Award

Just Back From: Namibia & Botswana by Jeanie Fundora

The contrasting lands of Namibia and Botswana are wonderful destinations for first-time travelers to southern Africa as they offer a tremendous diversity in scenery, wildlife and activities. Our Namibia & Botswana: Desert to Delta is a wonderful 14-night safari itinerary that explores these two countries quite extensively and includes stays at world-renowned safari camps and lodges.

Jeanie Fundora, our Product Manager for Africa recently traveled to Namibia and Botswana. Read her report here.

Rwanda's Silverback Lodge Opens

Our four day, three night Private Travel Journey Gorillas in the Mist, includes a stay at the new Sabyinyo Silverback Lodge, which is set to open this month in Rwanda.

The Lodge has been conceived, built, and will be operated and managed by Governors' Camp, and owned by SACOLA, a Rwandese community trust. It is situated at 7,000 feet, in the foothills of the Virungas volcanic mountains, and the closest accommodation to the main entrance to the Parc National des Volcans, home to the endangered Mountain Gorilla.

All guest suites and cottages are discretely situated in the hills, and take full advantage of views of the Virunga Volcanoes. Each accommodation has a sitting room with fireplace, bedroom, dressing room, large bathroom with modern amenities, and private veranda.

Contact Jeanie Fundora at 1-800-999-1758 to book your trip or for further details.
