Visit India in summer, when the crowds of the wintertime months are gone, and you'll be able to enjoy this fabulous country at a less frantic pace, with most of the sites to yourselves.

Tour the capitol city of New Delhi, the Taj Mahal, ancient forts, and sacred temples. Shop traditional bazaars for exquisite silks and a myriad of handicrafts. You will find that the gracious hospitality of the Indian people will follow you wherever you go.

Stay in the Taj Hotels Resorts and Palaces' heritage properties, really living like royalty. Three are over-the-top Maharaja's palaces: Rambagh Palace in Jaipur (the "Jewel of Jaipur"), Umaid Bhawan Palace, Jodhpur (decadent art deco stylishness), and Taj Lake Palace, Udaipur (an enchanting lake setting). In sophisticated Mumbai (Bombay), it's the Taj Mahal Palace (an architectural marvel built in 1903).

Day One Arrival in Delhi

Arrival late this evening in India's capital, Delhi. Transfer to your hotel.

Taj Palace Hotel (deluxe room)

Day Two Delhi B,L

Tour the historic sights of Old Delhi, including the Red Fort, once the most opulent fort of the Mughal Empire, and the Jama Masjid, India's largest mosque. Lunch at a local restaurant.

Day Three Agra day trip B,L

Today board the Shatabdi Express train to Agra. Here you will visit the famed Taj Mahal, the ultimate monument to love. See the sandstone Agra fort with its palaces and hall of public and private audience. Enjoy a visit to the deserted capital city of Fatehpur Sikri, built by the great Emperor Akbar. Lunch at a local hotel. Return to Delhi & your hotel this evening aboard the Shatabdi Express train.

Day Four Delhi B,L

Today tour New Delhi, a legacy of the British. You will see the President's palace, formerly the Viceroy's Palace, India Gate, then visit the Mughal monuments of Humayun's Tomb and Qutab Minar.
