OMO VALLEY: CULTURES OF SOUTHERN ETHIOPIA

SOUTHERN ETHIOPIA • KARO, HAMAR, MURSI, BUMI AND MUGUJI VILLAGES
7 DAYS & 6 NIGHTS

HIGHLIGHTS

- Boat along the Omo River and explore this fascinating region
- Witness the vanishing tribes of Ethiopia, an indisputable kaleidoscope of culture, who welcome you with an extreme pride in their traditions, customs and way of life
- Enjoy bird's eye views of Ethiopia's majestic landscapes

Ethiopia's Omo Delta is one of the last great tribal regions left in the world today. Visit local tribes including the Mursi, renowned for the clay discs that the women wear, inserted into their lower lips; the Hamar, whose women adorn themselves with elaborate braided hairstyles colored with red clay; and the Karo, whose people are highly decorated with clay and body paint.

Explore the Omo from your base at our private tented camp, simple but comfortable, on the banks of the Omo River, in a remote location reached by charter flight from Addis Ababa. We have taken great care to develop relationships with each village we visit and to observe special courtesies important to each.
