

Wake up in a National Treasure—Introducing Taj Hotel Cape Town

The luxurious new Taj Cape Town finds its home in two of the city's most beautiful and historically significant buildings. From these two magnificently restored structures, the five-star Taj Cape Town has been meticulously designed. Located in the center of historic Cape Town at the entrance of the famous pedestrian district, St George's Mall, the hotel is perfectly situated for those looking to discover authentic Cape Town, and its blend of fascinating history, exotic culture, soulful art, lively entertainment and delectable cuisine.

With 167 exquisite rooms—Heritage Rooms and Suites, Tower Rooms and Suites, the Presidential Suite and the Taj Club—Taj Cape Town offers guests old-world quality complemented by modern features and luxury amenities. The hotel also has a full Jiva Grande Spa, a fitness center, three restaurants, meeting rooms, and business center.

Cox & Kings has available space at Taj Cape Town during the World Cup! To experience this lavish Taj Hotels, Resorts and Palaces' addition to South Africa, please contact Jeanie Fundora at 1-800-999-1758.

World Cup South Africa 2010—The Matches are Set!

In 147 days, World Cup soccer will kick off in South Africa so get yourself a vuvuzela and shout laduma when your team scores! If you've never seen or heard a vuvuzela, it is an elongated trumpet-like horn that sounds like an elephant. Laduma is a cheer to celebrate when a goal is scored—from the Zulu "it thunders."

Cox & Kings has created some very special travel packages to enjoy the best of Africa during World Cup 2010—stay at top hotels, see your favorite teams play live, and take a once in a lifetime safari. Every Soccer & Safari package includes Category 1 tickets and VIP services and events. Our dedicated local staff will be at your service from the moment you touch down in South Africa and throughout your stay.

Please note that space on each departure is on a first-come, first-served basis, and space is going quickly. Book now for this year's World Cup Soccer & Safari—contact Jeanie Fundora at 1-800-999-1758.

Beijing—Private Access at Chonghua Palace, the Forbidden City

Visit an area of the Forbidden City normally off-limits to the public, with a private tour of the Chonghua Gong (Palace of Double Brilliance). The palace was built in 1727 by Emperor Yongzheng for his heir-designate, Emperor Qianlong, who lived here as a young man before his accession to the throne. A great opportunity to privately absorb one of the world's largest former palaces in depth.

This exclusive access event may be easily added to our Private Travel Journey Classic China or China Experience. Please contact Lynsey Hendry at 1-800-999-1758.
