

Uma Paro—Hidden Bhutanese Enclave

Uma Paro offers exceptional style in the Himalayan Kingdom of Bhutan. Situated on the cusp of the Paro Valley, the resort integrates Bhutanese vernacular style and contemporary elegance with sleek, uncluttered interiors. Rooms and suites are located in glades planted with azaleas, maximizing views of forest, mountains and the Paro Valley. Materials include handcrafted stone, wood and tiles. The main building, formerly a Bhutanese nobleman's home, forms the hotel's heart.

Explore the culture-rich town of Paro and visit the iconic Tiger's Nest Monastery or sample hiking, archery and mountain biking. Restore and indulge in vital holistic therapies at COMO Shambhala Retreat. Dine at the Bukhari restaurant, where local Bhutanese produce blended with Indian cuisine, provides exquisite, original gourmet fare.

Silk Road Highlights

One of the world's oldest and historically important transcontinental trade routes, the Silk Road influenced the cultures of China, Central Asia and the West. One of the highlights on your journey through the region, will be the Mogao Caves in Dunhuang. This World Heritage Site was built starting in 366 AD, and by the time of the Tang Dynasty empress Wu Zetian, more than 1000 rooms had been carved and painted. See our Private Travel Journey Silk Road Odyssey for more tour details.
