Cox & Kings' China Family Tour—Take the Kids this Summer

Give your children the opportunity to experience China on this private tour created just for families: Emperors, Warriors, Dumplings & Pandas. Learn about Chinese family life in the ancient Hutongs of Beijing and make kites and fly them at the Great Wall. In Xian, see the Terracotta Warriors up close and visit with the rare Great Pandas in Chengdu. This exceptional journey ends in Shanghai with its modern skyscrapers and an amazing acrobat performance.

From $3700 per adult/$2970 per child under 11 years (based on a family of 3). For more information contact Denise Gogarty at 1-800-999-1758.

Searching for the Bengal Tiger—on Safari in India

Cox & Kings' tour Lure of the Jungle follows the trail of the endangered Royal Bengal tiger. Traveling by specially designed 4x4 vehicles, and on elephant back, safaris in the national parks of Bandhavgarh, Kahna and Pench offer an opportunity to search for one of the world's most elusive animals. The new Taj lodges of Mahua Kothi, Banjar Tola and Bagvan offer impeccable service and lush luxury. Read Mahua Kothi naturalist guide Kartikeya's account searching for tiger in Bandhavgarh National Park.

Reduced prices when you travel through June 30, 2011. To book, or for more information, contact Seema Prakash at 1-800-999-1758.

Book early for the best East African lodges

With many lovely boutique properties and private game ranches on the scene, Kenya and Tanzania today offer some of the best game-viewing in Africa, and exquisite safari camps and lodges all in the setting of a truly classic Out of Africa backdrop. Planning in advance for July through October is essential in order to ensure availability of your top accommodation choices and witness East Africa's spectacular migration.

Mongolia's Nadaam Festival

Experience the biggest Mongolian festival of the year—from the grand opening ceremonies at the country's largest Naadam in Ulaanbaatar to the more provincial Naadam festival in the Gobi. The yearly celebrations begin July 11 this year, and bring out a fun, but competitive spirit in Mongolians. Watch expert horse racing, archery, and wrestling—traditional sports very dear to Mongolians of all ages. Food, music, and dancing add to the celebrations of this centuries-old festival.

We are holding a very limited amount of deluxe lodging, including the Three Camel Lodge, and the Ulaanbaatar Hotel, which is situated on the city's central square.

To book this special itinerary, contact Denise Gogarty at 1-800-999-1758. See also our Mongolia: Untouched Wilderness journey.

Just Back From: Syria

Our Arabia & North Africa product manager Nicole Beattie recently returned from Syria—one of many trips she's made to the country in the past 20 years. Read about her top places to visit. See also our private journeys Syria Through the Ages, Syria & Jordan: Ancient Civilizations, and Lebanon & Syria: Empires Past for more ideas on traveling to Syria.

UNESCO World Heritage Sites—Uganda

Bwindi Impenetrable National Park

Located in southwestern Uganda, at the junction of the plain and mountain forests, Bwindi Park covers 80,000 acres and is known for its exceptional biodiversity, with more than 160 species of trees and over 100 species of ferns. Many types of birds and butterflies can also be found here, as well as endangered species such as the mountain gorilla.

Rwenzori Mountains National Park

The Rwenzori Mountains National Park covers nearly 250,000 acres in western Uganda and comprises the main part of the Rwenzori mountain chain, which includes Africa's third highest peak. The region's glaciers, waterfalls and lakes make it one of Africa's most beautiful alpine areas. The park contains varied natural habitats of endangered species and a rich and unusual flora, including the giant heather.

Visits to Uganda's UNESCO World Heritage sites may be easily added to our private journey Uganda: Pearl of Africa. To book your trip, contact Megan Bryant at 1-800-999-1758.
